Dear Ted:

I have just come upon the material you sent about yourself some time ago, and suddenly realized that I had completely overlooked you in planning our Conference on Education and Training. And this after speaking to you about it, too! I am truly embarrassed and apologize deeply.

As some small compensation, may I offer a complimentary registration for the entire conference and exhibition? I realize this will not be as rewarding as being a speaker or panelist, however, it will give you an opportunity to discuss your points of view and take issue with speakers as a member of the audience. If one of the panelist should happen to back out, I'd be pleased to call on you -- if you wouldn't be offended.

Again -- I'm very sorry, we'll certainly do better next year.

Very truly yours,

Raymond D. Lenoue
Conference Director
